

Is ZBT a fit for me?

If you live by the values of our Credo — Intellectual Awareness, Social Responsibility, Integrity and Brotherly Love — you should be a ZBT. Leave a legacy at West Virginia and become a ZBT Founding Father.

FAQ

Q: What is the time commitment needed to start a new chapter as a Founding Father?

Q: What are the costs associated with joining Zeta Beta Tau?

Q: What are the requirements to join ZBT?

Q: I am not Jewish, should I join a Jewish fraternity?

FAST FACTS

ZBT is a Jewish fraternity open to all

ZBT is proud of our founding as the first Jewish fraternity. Today, ZBT is open to all men, no matter their background, religion or creed.

No pledging or hazing

ZBT was the first fraternity to abolish the pledge process. We are a brotherhood founded on respect.

80+ chapters and 140,000 alumni and undergraduate brothers

ZBT has brothers in the USA, Canada, Israel, around the world.

A: You put in what you want out of it! Most brothers will commit an hour two per week to the chapter; those interested in leadership roles will put in more time. As a non-pledging fraternity, the strenuous pledge process that damages GPA and social life is eliminated.

A: The one-time fee for Founding Fathers who start a chapter is $320. This fee covers the expenses to for both the initiation semester and the year following. Local chapter dues are decided by the brothers in leadership.

A: Be a fully matriculated student at West Virginia University, have a high school or undergraduate GPA of at least 2.7, and share in the values of Intellectual Awareness, Social Responsibility, Integrity and Brotherly Love.

A: Yes! Zeta Beta Tau is open to all men of good character, no matter their background, religion or creed!

ZBT.ORG/WESTVIRGINIA
@ZBTWVU